Corrigendum

Please refer to our guidelines communicated to you with the admission offer letter.

Page number 13, paragraph four in the guideline to be read as follows:

As per the Office Memorandum issued by the Ministry of Education, Department of Higher Education, Government of India, the candidates may voluntarily submit the following urine-based test reports.

- Urine-based test for 6 drugs Panel (Amphetamines (AMP), Benzodiazepine (BZO), Cocaine (COC), Opiates (OPI/MOR), Phencyclidine (PCP), and Cannabinoids/Marijuana (THC)) from a NABL certified laboratory.
- The report must be in a closed envelope marked "Confidential" for the Student Wellness Committee under the SWP program.

Note:

1. Urine-based for drug panel test report should be recent, i.e., conducted not earlier than seven days and must be obtained from a NABL-certified laboratory.
2. The urine-based test report for the 6-drug panel will be treated as strictly confidential and will not affect the admission process. It will not be disclosed to anyone other than SWC.

Rest no change.
